Variable Pay Amendment Policy

Version 1.0

Objective:

- The purpose of this policy is to define the structure, eligibility, and administration of the variable pay program. It aims to drive high performance and align employee contributions with organizational goals and strategic objectives.

Eligibility:

- All full-time employees are eligible for Variable pay policy.

Variable Pay Components:

- Variable Pay is a Performance linked Variable Pay.
- Individual Performance: Achievement of KRAs/Goals set at the beginning of the appraisal cycle.
- Team/Functional Performance: Departmental achievements, process improvements, team targets, etc.
- Organizational Performance: Financial results, market growth, operational efficiencies, etc.

The weightage and payout percentage may differ by role level or business function.

Variable Payout Structure:

- Variable payouts will be prorated for employees who joined after the start of the financial year and have not completed the full performance cycle.
- If employee exits the organization before 31st March. In such cases, no variable pay (pro-rated or otherwise) will be paid out.

Final eligibility and payout amount are subject to company discretion and may be adjusted based on performance and business results.

Tax Implication:

- All variable pay is subject to applicable income tax and statutory deductions as per government laws.

Policy Review

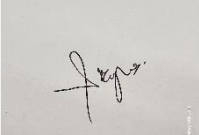

- This policy will be reviewed annually and updated as necessary to reflect changes in business strategy or compensation philosophy.
